

Find mistakes in the following sentences.

You can coming from all the world.

If they have any time they can shopping in the most famous London's shops.

The couples can walking on the promenade along the Thames.

This travel is thinking for couples.

Ours tourists have available money, because London is more expensive.

It's easy to reach by ferry or airplane.

Moreover the underwater immersion will reserve continuous surprises between submarine caves and natural pools.

With the coffee, after meals it is the right taste to conclude the dinner or lunch.

The target taken in consideration is made of couples.

In fact, the proposal comprises two types of routes: one, of natural aspect, in order to admire the authenticity of the regional protected areas and taste the local products; the other, of historic and traditional aspect, in order to discover the ancient origins of the region.

These itineraries are thought for couples who love adventure, who have curiosity towards this region and who want to discover it, but also live it and share it with the gentry of the place.

The agency puts at disposal a car for the movements along the routes. Moreover, it takes on the task of covering the cost of 50 EUR of fuel spend in 2 days for those that book the first 10 seats, so for the first 5 couples.

The travel lasts 8 days.

It is subdivided into a period of time of four days.

The park includes the four Tremiti islands, surrounded by crystal-clear water and rich of caves.

Inside the forests, you can find five different species of wood peckers.

The tallest trullo of the village is called "Sovereign trullo", which has been transformed into a museum and can be visited inside: in fact, it has been furnished according to the taste of the period.

Because of the various political and territorial stories, the cities were influenced by...

The portraits realized by Durer and Pisanello.

The principal form of medieval architecture is in Genoa: it is the Cathedral of Saint Lawrence; to white and black stripes, it is the most famous example of Ligurian Gothic.

The historical building in neoclassic style entertains important exhibitions, debates and conferences.

The sea is transparent and clear, the cliffs sheer above the water and many little villages look on the sea.

The environment is particular for its bays...

We can find some routes, promenades and hikes hidden in the deepness of the green nature.

Sandwiched between sand and mountains...

The Tuscan Archipelago National Park is a chain of seven islands between the Ligurian sea and the Tyrrhenian sea.

This allows you to admire the most authentic faces of the place through unpaved paths.

So just take a ferry and start your adventure.

The weather in Tarifa is ideal to spend a nice holiday.

You are welcomed in an immense world of opportunities.

There is a big choice which varies from the lowest ...

NY is life-full at every day hour.

... a lot of races live together but although everyone feels American.

The growth of tourism is increasing thanks to the European who stay for a long time... and spend much more than the Americans also because of the Euro.

Here there are some of the deserving places that you should visit once in NY.

The waiters are very expert and able to help the clients to choose the courses.

Exhibition spaces for Siena and international artists are available thanks to a massive restoration program.

Mainly our tourists coming from Europe.

London can be also romantic.

Always London is cool.

The typical inland landscape's vegetation is an invitation for relaxing walks.

It's from the inland regions that come the typical products of delicate and intense tastes.

With the coffee, after meals it is the right taste to conclude the dinner or lunch.

The sea is transparent and clear, the cliffs sheer above the water and many little villages look on the sea.

It's worth getting lost in the land of Liguria.

The Isle of Elba is famous also for its national park.

Characteristic of this city is the multi-ethnicity.

The Japanese Restaurant world's most popular is "nobu".

It's a beach well known thanks to possibility of being able practice different water sports.

If they have any time they can shopping in the most famous London's shops.

Their interests are heritage of place.

Our tourists have available money, because London is more expensive.

Their interests are heritage of place.

Sardinia is an island located in Mediterranean sea.

The "Costa Esmeralda" doesn't need presentation.

It is the red wine in general, but also exists a white Mirto called Zedda Piras.

it's possible to rediscover natural pleasures and tastes of a wonderful land, known for the crystalline sea, the best food and the Mediterranean climate.

The first day is dedicated to the visit of Gargano National Park.

The second day is dedicated to the visit of Castellana caves

Opposite the remaining columns, you can see an impressive structure of Castello Aragonese

The sea is transparent and clear, the cliffs sheer above the water and many little villages look on the sea.

[...] people who want to discover the "real Liguria".

Chianti offers poetic landscapes, world renowned wines and once-in-a-lifetime experience.

They enjoy to discovering the story.

You can go after dinner to drinking a pint of beer.

You can visit a lot of important and spectacular museum, buildings and shops.

All meals end with unforgettable sweet.

Inside the park you'll find lots of different habitat, unique of its kind (thick forests, wide tablelands, Mediterranean scrub, wonderful caves and valleys that slop down to the sea).

The cave of the leaning tower of Pisa, named after the shape of a stalagmite that remind the world well known monument in Pisa.

... nothing cumbersome like sofa or armchairs but only 30 king-size bed.

Piazza del Campo is one of Italy's most famous square.

The couples can walk along the Thames, that is lit up by lovely lights at night.

The best Canonau is the one of the well-known Sella e Mosca wine shop, which it sells wine all over the world and also produces the extremely good white wine.

The tallest trullo of the village is called "Sovereign trullo", which has been transformed into a museum and can be visited inside: in fact, it has been furnished according to the taste of the period.

Thanks to its beaches and beautiful waters is one of favorite places for see side turism in addiction to actract thousands of tourists.

This made Tarifa famous far beyond the spanish mainland.

Thanks to its beaches and beautiful waters is one of favorite places for see side turism.

Thanks to wealth of territory able to offer excellent food and beverage products.

The target taken in consideration is made of couples with an age comprised between 25 and 35 years old, of middle-low income, who look for alternative ways of accommodation and authenticity of places and local eno-gastronomic products.

Anyway, it's expected the contact with local population and the tasting of typical products, through the overnight stay in farm holiday structures and large farms.

It isn't planned the disposal of a touristic guide;

the agency provides to clients a map of the region.

Cows give lots of good milk

You'll spend the night in the Forestieri agriturismo located in Mattinata, a wonderful town, half an hour drive from.

the cave of the leaning tower of Pisa, named after the shape of a stalagmite that remind the world well known monument in Pisa.

Then it's planned to come back in the evening to Porto Cesareo and stay in the island house for the night.

Taranto is called the "town with two seas" because Canale Navigabile, which was excavated in 1481, separates the Città Vecchia (Old City) from the Città Nuova (New City), which are now connected by a swing bridge; it links the Mar Piccolo to the Mar Grande.

one of the main sight to visit is for sure the Doric columns in a corner of Piazza Castello.

You can visit by appointment occupied by the Italian navy.

It's expected the overnight in Taranto.

Finally, it's planned the departure to home the next day early in the morning.

Mainly our tourists coming from Europe.

The Cinque Terre are National Park and Unesco protected territory since 1997.

This famous promenade starts from Riomaggiore and arrive in Manarola.

Tarifa is an excellent place where can be done bird, whale and dolphin watching on the 14kmn wide straits.

Tarifa has two prevailing winds: the strong and warm called Levante, ..., and the colder, the Poniente,...

Our travel agency reach to promote the natural accraction of the North of Sardenia wich is caraterized by a territory an ambiental contest in particular the famous Smeralda Coast, the sphere arcipelago De La Maddalena e the white beaches of Stintino.

This in order to provide an experience that bases also on the stability and the unity of the couple itself, and that manages to strengthen it in order to guarantee to it unforgettable moments.

It's not necessary to carry with themselves a windcheater because during the month it hardly ever rains. It's rather useful to carry with themselves hats to protect themselves from the burning sun and the accessories which are necessary to accede to the sea.

Due to the mind autumnal and springlike climate it is suitable for both those that love sport and outdoor activities.

Walking, through the many foot paths, your imagination breaks free, enjoys the incredible ever changing landscape and leads you to unreachable beaches otherwise unknown.

Let's say that the island has everything an sportsman would want and need.

You can begin with La Grotta dei Balzi Rossi [...]; then the Le Grotte di Toirano and in the end and excursion in La Valle delle Meraviglie, and on the mountain Bego: the men of the Prehistory have left on the rocks incisions of religious character.

It's called Liguria's Louvre.

For the sculpture, there are works by Moore and Miro instead.

It's fantastic, romantic, suggestive and it smells of love.

Anybody who visits the Cinque Terre looks for this promenade.

It's important not to forget that La Via dell'Amore has a story linked to the Genova-La Spezia railway. Infact the route was made at the beginning of '900 during the rebuilding of the railway.